ITINERARY SOUTH AMERICA AND ANTARCTICA

Day 1 - Day 4

CHILEAN FJORDS AND CAPE HORN

Start in Punta Arenas where you will board the MS Midnatsol. Meet your fellow travel mates and get to know the expert guides that will take you on this journey. Cruise past the small island, Isla Tucker, and look for Magellanic penguins, dolphins, birds and sea lions. Continue through the Gabriel Canal, a narrow canal surrounded by fjords and mountains. As you approach Garibaldi Fjord, you will see two massive glaciers. Bring your camera and disembark from the ship to see the front side of the fjord. Continue to Cape Horn and if weather permits disembark to visit this maritime legend.

Day 5 AT SEA

Today you are at sea passing from Cape Horn to Antarctica. Enjoy on ship activities and lectures as you cross the Drake Passage.

Day 6 - Day 10 ANTARCTICA

Welcome to Antarctica! Disembark and explore the White Wilderness and search for wildlife like penguins and fur seals. Enjoy a kayaking excursion, take a hike with the Expedition Team or take in the sights from the decks of the ship. There are several landing places you will be able to explore, so be sure to keep your camera handy.

Day 11 AT SEA

Today is another day at sea where you can relax and reflect on your incredible experience in Antarctica. Share photos and stories with the travelers you met and attend lectures to learn more about Antarctica.

Day 12 - Day 14 FALKLAND ISLANDS

Today you visit the Falkland Islands, in particular, the small town and capital, Stanley. Explore the city by foot or enjoy a few different excursions including hiking or kayaking. Tonight you will have the opportunity to sleep on the deck!

Day 15 - Day 16

AT SEA

Today is your last day aboard the MS Midnatsol, and it will be spent crossing the Drake Passage, enjoy the last moments on the ship and converse with your friends and family over a farewell dinner with the Expedition Team.

Day 17

MONTEVIDEO

Your trip ends in Montevideo. Say goodbye to the people you met on your expedition and catch a flight to your next destination in South America or journey home.
