ITINERARY MAGUARÍ EXPEDITION

Day 1 - Thursday

BOARD THE M/V DESAFIO, DEPART MANAUS

Take the Negro River to Solimoes, Lake January, Igarapas

Hop on board the M/V Desafio in the afternoon right from the docks of the Tropical Hotel. After departure, take in a briefing with information on the trip as we navigate the Negro River towards the Solimoes. Heading towards Lake January, keep an eye out for the huge Victoria Amazonica water plant. Take to the canoe to visit the Igarapas. Stop at an indigenous house to catch a brief glimpse of their way of life. Dinner is served during navigation, then we drop the anchor to enjoy the sounds of the jungle overnight.

Day 2 - Friday

SAMAUMA ISLAND - ANAVILHANAS ARCHIPELAGO

Trekking and canoeing in the largest river archipelago in the world

After an early breakfast, we set out for a trekking tour to observe local plant life. Then it's back to the boat for an hour of swimming before lunch is served on the way to Samauma Island. The island is part of the Anavilhanas Archipelago, the largest river archipelago in the world. Spend the afternoon exploring around the islands, lakes, and igarapas. After dinner, take to a canoe to experience the night sounds of the forest in the dark waters of the Negro River.

Day 3 - Saturday

SANTA MARIA - FURO DO MEIOA

Experience the "Ribeirinho" way of living in a Caboclo village

Depart the Anavilhanas in the early morning headed towards Santa Maria, a Caboclo village, where have a chance to see the Ribeirinho way of living and enjoy some breakfast. Then it's off to Furo do Meioa with lunch served during navigation. In the afternoon, take part in a fishing contest for piranha, the most aggressive fish in the Amazon. Then it's back to the boat for swimming before dinner. Close out the day with a canoe trip to search for alligators.

Day 4 - Sunday

RETURN TO MANAUS

One last look at Amazonian wildlife on the way back to port

Wake up early for a morning tour to observe the concert of the birds emerging from their night hideouts. Return to the boat for breakfast as we begin our return to Manaus and the Tropical docks.
