ITINERARY

Day 1 ARRIVE IN BELÉM

Arrive in Belém and transfer to your chosen hotel. Listen to a presentation put on by the expert guides at the Passenger Terminal Fluvial, in the Docks Station. Depending on your hotel's location, you may need to take a taxi there. If you're close, walk your way there and become familiar with your surroundings.

After the presentation, join in on a local boat ride for the evening. Or you can opt for a nighttime stroll along the river through the Belem Orla. Belém, situated on The Bay of Guajará, is where you can find locals playing live music, a variety of games, presentations of folk dances, and more. When it nears time for dinner, try the dining options of the Dock Station. The home restaurant there is where you will find the most traditional cuisine.

Day 2 BELÉM & MARAJÓ ISLAND

Today you will meet the largest marine-fluvial island in the world; Marajó Island. This island is charmed with golden beaches, diverse landscapes, various flora and fauna, Marajoara culture, and cuisine. In the morning, transfer from the hotel to a local boarding shop by shuttle. The ship will take you to Camará village, a small beach town of Salvaterra. There you will enjoy a reception and then transfer to Pousada dos Guaras.

In the afternoon, you will have time to explore many sites in town. Visit the Historic Village of Joanes, the Jesuit Ruins, and Great Joanes Beach. If you have leftover time, squeeze in some visits to shops for local crafts. At the end of your packed day, return to the Inn where you can relax and reminisce on all that you've seen and done so far.

Day 3 SOURE PARÁ

In the morning, horseback ride and take photos in Buffalo. Have lunch at Pousada dos Guaras, and gear up for your full afternoon. Today you will explore Soure, Pará. Choose from the various attractions: Farm Field, Mangrove Roots Hanging, Old Bar Beach, Crafts, Ceramics and Tannery (buffalo leather craft center). Later, return to the Inn for a moment to regroup. Once night falls, enjoy a presentation of folk dances in the hotel restaurant.

*The show of folk dances will only be presented if the group is composed of at least 10 people.

Day 4 SALVATERRA

Take a morning stroll down the Paracauari River that divides the city of Soure and Salvaterra. If the tide permits, you can visit the stream of Guajará. On return, take a short visit to the center of the city of Salvaterra. During your afternoon break, have lunch at Pousada dos Guaras, and take in the last of this quaint city. After lunch, you will check out and prepare for your transfer to Belém.

*During the week and on Sunday the return of the boat takes place at 15:00 pm. Arrival in Belem at about 18: 00h. Transfer to the hotel.

Day 5

BELÉM CITY TOUR & SHUTTLE

Today, take a city tour through the 'city of hoses.' On this tour, you will learn about the most important attractions of the capital. These attractions include Nazareth Basilica Complex, Ver-o-Peso, Lusitania Complex, and the Pole Jeweller. After you finish sightseeing, you will transfer to the airport for your journey home.
