ARRIVAL AT IGUAZÚ FALLS

While approaching Iguazú International Airport, catch sight of the magnificent Iguazú Falls and the surrounding natural park of Argentina, Brazil, and Paraguay. Your expert bilingual guide will escort you to the fabulous 5 Star Bourbon Iguassu Golf Club & Resort on the Brazilian side of the falls. Check in and take advantage of its superb facilities. Swim a few laps in the pool or head straight for the greens. The 18-hole course (par 72) is a golfer's dream, extending for some 6kms. After watching the sunset, feast on a Brazilian dinner and enjoy your first evening in Brazil.

IGUAZÚ FALLS TOUR

Experience the mighty falls from both the Brazilian and Argentine sides on a full-day excursion today. Cross into Argentina to view the falls from above. The breadth of the Niagara Falls pales in comparison to the Iguazú Falls, and it's easy to see why from this spectacular overview. Next, head to the Brazilian side and walk along an elevated platform to view the awe-inspiring garganta do diabo (Devil's Throat). Capture the fierce beauty of the torrents with some snapshots and feel the mist of the water.

Alternatively, opt for the Macuco Safari and board a boat to cruise underneath the falls, a novel way to view this majestic natural wonder.

FINAL DAY AT BOURBON IGUASSU GOLF CLUB AND RESORT

Play a few rounds of golf on the famous Bourbon Iguassu Golf Club and Resort course on the final day in Iguazú. Located at the intersection of the borders of Brazil, Argentina and Paraguay, tee off in one country and get a hole-in-one in another.

Enjoy the challenge of another course at the Buenos Aires Golf Club. It's rated as one of the top golf courses in Latin America and the best in Argentina. In 2000, Tiger Woods and David Dual played here during the EMC Golf World Cup. Stretching to almost 6.5kms long, watch out for water hazards and bunkers while admiring the landscape. Select from three different 9-hole courses to practice on and aim for par.
