ITINERARY

Day 1

ARRIVE IN SANTIAGO

Start your South America Wine Tour in Santiago. This bustling city is not only the capital of Chile, but it is also the best wine region in Chile.

Transfer to your hotel and get ready for your city tour. Visit the main attractions in Santiago and admire the contrast between the colonial architecture and modern skyscrapers in Vitacura and Las Condes.

Finish your Santiago tour where it all started: Santa Lucía Hill, the foundation of the city. Climb the hill for a picture-perfect panoramic view of Santiago and the Andes Mountains.

Day 2

VALPARAISO & VIÑA DEL MAR

After breakfast, grab your swimsuit because you are going to visit the picturesque seaport towns of Viña del Mar and Valparaíso!

Start in Valparaíso, where Nobel prize winner Pablo Neruda had one of his three houses, La Sebastiana, now open to the public as a museum. Visit the historic center, which was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2003. Admire the well-preserved 19th-century buildings and churches, and use the elevators to climb some of the hills in the city.

Afterwards, head to Viña del Mar, which will welcome you with its beautiful gardens, plazas, and palaces. The emblematic symbol of this town, nicknamed 'The Garden City,' is the Flower Clock, boasting pink, red, and white flowers. Spend some spare time on the beach, sunbathing, swimming, or just walking along the coast. Return to Santiago in the late afternoon and relax for the rest of the evening.

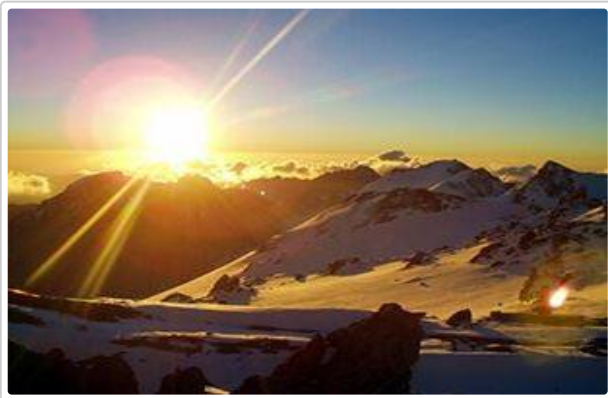

Day 3

MAIPO VALLEY AND TRANSFER TO MENDOZA

Visit a winery in the area and enjoy the view of the mountain range. During this visit, you will be able to taste and buy the best-known Chilean wines. Return to your hotel in Santiago to check out and proceed to the transfer to the airport to arrive in Argentina. Your first destination in the country is Mendoza, Argentina's wine capital.

Check-in to your hotel and enjoy the rest of the day at your leisure.

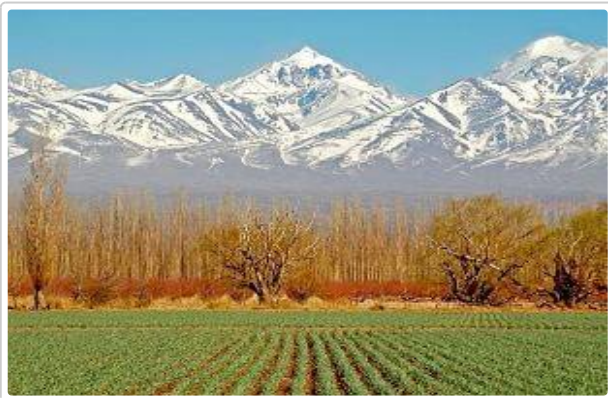

Day 4

MENDOZA CITY TOUR

Today, explore Mendoza on a city tour. Mendoza has nearly 365 days of sun and the properties of its soil make this territory ideal for winemaking. One of the main grapevines is Malbec, which has a more fruity flavor than the French version. Visit this colonial and verdant city on a half-day city tour, exploring the Civic Center and the San Martin Park.

Return to your hotel and admire the romantic views of the sunset over the Andes.

Day 5

UCO VALLEY WINE TASTING TOUR

Visit Uco Valley, the highest Valley in Mendoza. Stop at the first vineyard to learn about the winemaking processes. Then head to the cellar for a wine tasting and complete the experience with a local lunch.

Visit the second vineyard in the region and continue to immerse yourself in the viticulture of Argentina. Return to Mendoza in the early evening.

Day 6

TRANSFER TO BUENOS AIRES & CITY TOUR

Transfer to the airport and catch a flight to Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel in downtown Buenos Aires and get ready for a city tour. Explore Buenos Aires with a local expert guide, visit its landmarks, including the Obelisk, 'Casa Rosada' Presidential Palace, the colorful Caminito in La Boca and more. Stroll through the elegant neighborhood of Recoleta and trendy Palermo. Finally, visit Puerto Madero, the most modern part of the city. The area was Buenos Aires's former port and has been completely transformed with luxurious skyscrapers, a yacht club, a variety of first-class restaurants and the Women's Bridge.

Day 7

BUENOS AIRES & TANGO SHOW

Spend the day exploring Buenos Aires on your own. In the evening, visit the famous Esquina Carlos Gardel Tango Show, at the corner of Carlos Gardel Street and Calle Anchorena. Enjoy a unique tango show, including a delicious Argentine meal and live music. Witnessing this show is one of the best ways to enjoy Buenos Aires, which is the city where the tango dance was born.

Day 8

TRANSFER TO COLONIA DEL SACRAMENTO & CITY TOUR

Cross the La Plata River by Hydrofoil to Colonia, Uruguay. Stroll through the enthralling streets of Colonia's historic center, the only UNESCO World Heritage Site in Uruguay and soak in the sights. This charming colonial city doesn't only offer picturesque scenes and breathtaking views of La Plata River, it also has an intriguing history and is one of the few places in South America that fell under both Portuguese and Spanish rule. Discover its legends under the light of its lampposts on a walking city tour.

Day 9

COLONIA WINE TASTING & TRANSFER TO MONTEVIDEO

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel before departing for Montevideo. Along the way to Montevideo stop at the Bouza Vineyard and enjoy a wine tasting. Tour the vineyard and learn about the Bouza family and the grapes in Uruguay. Try the white wines, including, Albariño and Chardonnay, along with their Merlot, Tempranillo and Tannat red wines.

After trying some delicious wines, continue to the capital city of Montevideo. Upon arrival, go on a city tour and visit the most famous attractions in the city. In the Old Town admire the different architectural styles such as Art Nouveau and Art Deco. Also, will see the Plaza Matriz and the Cathedral. Then you find Independence Square, which houses the remains of the national hero Jose Gervasio Artigas, and then continue to the Legislative Palace. You will also visit the traditional neighborhood Prado, Punta Gorda, and other residential areas.

Day 10

DEPARTURE FROM MONTEVIDEO

Transfer to the Montevideo Airport for your flight home or continue to your next destination in South America.
